

Luiza SALDANHA PENA COSTA
Associate

Tel.: +33 (0) 1 40 55 38 77
Direct: +33 (0) 1 40 55 38 09
luiza.saldanha@bettoaseraglini.com

Luiza Saldanha Pena Costa is an associate of betto seraglini. She is Brazilian and French and is involved in investment and commercial arbitrations. She is admitted to the Paris Bar.

LANGUAGES

Portuguese, French, English, Spanish

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Since 2017	Associate, betto seraglini
2016 - 2017	Legal consultant, UNODC Global Firearms Program (Vienna)
2016	Intern, betto seraglini (Paris)
2015	Intern, PLMJ - International Arbitration Department (Lisbon)
2014	Intern, UNESCO, Office of International Standards and Legal Affairs (Paris)
2013	Intern, UNIDO, Office of Legal Affairs (Vienna)
2012	Intern, UNODC, Corruption and Economic Crime Branch (Vienna)

EDUCATION

2017	Paris, Bar Admission
2012	Master 2 in International Law and International Organizations, University of Paris I (Panthéon-Sorbonne),

- 2011 Maîtrise in International and European Law,
University of Paris I (Panthéon-Sorbonne),
- 2011 License degree in Foreign languages (legal English),
University of Paris I (Panthéon-Sorbonne),

PROFILE

Member of the ArbitralWomen

Member of the Young International Arbitration Group (YIAG)

EXPERIENCES

BIT Arbitration relating to the expropriation of a Western investor in an Eastern European State in various industrial sectors and in real estate.

(12 billion USD - UNCITRAL/BIT, Seat in Madrid, English language)

Dispute between investors in a telecommunications operation in Brazil.

(15 billion dollars, Brazilian law, ICC Paris, English language)

Advice to a Dutch company regarding the construction of an oil platform in Africa.

(200 million dollars, Portuguese and French language)

Dispute between investors in a telecommunications operation in Brazil.

(Brazilian law, ICC London, English language)

International investment arbitration related to a port concession in Africa.

(ICSID, CCJA, French language)

Representation of an NGO in a dispute against the European Union concerning a humanitarian project in Africa. (European Union law, French language)